OZARKS ONLY

There's a pleasant valley
With mountains high around
We'll tell you all about it's joys
So far away from town.

It's quiet enough for the timid things
Wild turkey, timber wolf, deer;
A river chuckles at it's shores
And you've quiet enough to hear.

Indians often camped right there
We know-- we've found the proof.
They stopped, you see, right by our spring
Quiet tribes -- and aloof.

Not aloof our neighbors though
Whose hearts are great with love
Not for self but fellow man
A true gift from above.

We'll take you there this evening
Let's start out very soon
Away from noise and pressure
We'll begin with the Harvest Moon.
Studio Group, 1963.

NEIGHBORS

They don't always live in the house next door,
Often they're states apart
They don't often work at the same kind of job,
Being neighbors ' a way of the heart.

Their helping hands have no strings attached
They want to share from the start
It isn't what they can get but give
Being neighbors ' a way of the heart

God, give us more neighbors in this big world
Teach us the neighborly art
Think of the peace mankind could know -
Being neighbors ' a way of the heart.
